

OREGON LIVESTOCK, DAIRY AND POULTRY - 2000

Production of all livestock, dairy, and poultry products in Oregon for 2000 was valued at $786.1 million.

Cattle and calves production in 2000 was valued at $419.4 million. This is up 8 percent from last year. The average price for beef cattle increased $8.90 per hundred weight and calves increased $13.20 per hundredweight from the 1999 average.

The value of milk produced was $217.0 million, down 13 percent from 1999. The average price of all milk decreased $2.10 per hundredweight from the 1999 average.

Hog and pig value of production increased 21 percent from 1999. Production of hogs and pigs decreased 10 percent, but the average price increased $12.00 per hundredweight.

Sheep and lamb value of production increased 18 percent or $1.3 million from 1999. Production showed no change from last year. The average price of sheep fell $0.50 per hundred weight but average lamb prices increased to $78.70 per hundredweight. This compares to $66.90 per hundredweight in 1999.

Livestock, dairy and poultry: Value of production, percent of total by species
Oregon, 2000

